Dedication

Dear Mom and Dad:

Three years ago I left home, and you, to start a new and different life. Those three years have brought about many changes in me and also in you. Though I may seem outwardly different, inside I'm still your daughter, and always will be.

These three years have been busy ones, and at times I may have seemed to grow away from you—but I haven't. I may have forgotten to tell you and to show you how much I appreciate all that you have done for me. You have encouraged me when I needed it most. You have also given me helpful criticism when I needed it. It has been said that in order to be a good nurse, you must possess certain personal qualities. I have found out that having wonderful parents is important too. Without you, training would have been very different. If I didn't have your praise and your wise sympathy to help me, I would have grown up with more difficulty.

I owe you a great deal, and I doubt that I will ever be able to repay you in full. I hope that this letter will start to repay that debt.

I'll close for now, and hope you will be able to read between the lines and see all the other things I want to say. They're in my heart and always will be.

With love to the two most wonderful people I will ever know—

Your daughter

In Appreciation

We, the Class of 1957, welcome this opportunity to thank you, Miss Evans, our class advisor for the past three years. You have been very helpful in assisting us to overcome any difficulties we have encountered.

This is our way of showing you our appreciation and we hope it will be a reminder to us of your valuable assistance.

Again, we thank you.

CLASS OF 1957

Foreword

This book provides a glimpse of the history of three very important years of our lives. These three years are not to be taken lightly, for they have been formative ones—producing the people that we will be in the years to come.

This book will also be a diary of our youth. Our days of youth may soon be forgotten, as we become more of a part of the world around us. In a few years, a flashback of our training life will renew old memories and friendships.

Soon we will each go our separate ways, but we do not want to forget our life at VBH. Guard this book well, because it will bring back to you pleasant memories of happy days and hours.

Class Song

"SHE"

(To the tune of "He")

She alone can smile and calm your anxious fears
She can hum a tune and dry a baby's tears
She gives hope to all and makes your troubles light
She keeps watch all through each long and lonely night
She still finds the time to hear a child's own prayer
Young and old can call and always find her there
'Cause she is aware of your every fear
She'll always say "I am near".

She can grant a wish and do a favor too
She alone can smile and make your day less blue
She can be a guide and help your hearts to mend
She alone can see what lies beyond the bend
She can hold a child and turn his heart to gold
'Cause she is aware of your every fear
She'll always say "I am near".

FRESHMAN	INTERMEDIATE	SENIOR
Think I'll straighten up the Utility Room instead of going to coffee.	I'll just have to work faster if I'm going to get my coffee.	But I'll faint; I need that cup of coffee.
I can hardly carry these books from the library.	Think I'll just browse thru one book.	Reference? What Library?
Sorry, can't go—gotta study for next week's test.	Well, I'll study tomorrow night.	Bring your notes, we'll look them over before she hands out the papers.
The food isn't too bad here!	Who's ordering from Al's?	Seconds please!
We all can't sit at one table.	Pull up another chair!	Add another table.
Gosh, those college guys.	Look at the new interne.	I rather like psychiatrists.
Well, 3 years isn't too long.	Of course, affiliation breaks up the routine.	What, still 5 months to go?
I'll be scared to work all day.	Classes, floor work, am I pooped!	What, the weekend 3-11:30?
Don't they look nice in white?	Next year it'll be us!	It was really nothing!

The Hospital Wedding

Reprinted from "White Caps" of 1934

The laboratory was the scene of a very charming wedding on Saturday, October 1st, when Miss Mercury Thermometer was united in marriage to Mr. Rapid Pulse.

The Rev. Enema Stand officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather Mr. B.E.D. Pan and wore a gorgeous gown of white enamel with a court train of rubber tubing, lined with barium and held in place by a small silver clamp. She carried a shower bouquet of sputum cups and pale pink kidney basins. The bride was attended by Miss Ann Asthetic, Miss Violet Ray, and Miss Ethyl Chloride, similarly attired in short white gowns of the hospital, held in place by a safety pin at the back of the neck, and wearing picture hats made of basins and held in place by large bands of adhesive tied under the chin.

The bride's only jewelry was a family heirloom, a rare old gold tooth. Her veil of beautiful white gauze was worn in a highly sterilized fashion with tiny bands of morphia, held in place with shiny skin clips and three subcutaneous sutures of cat gut.

Little Miss Catheter, niece of the bride acted as flower girl, dressed in glistening glycerine.

The guests were rushed to their seats by Mr. Castor Oil and Mr. Epsom Salts who acted as ushers. During the service they stood in the chancel which was banked with tiny forget-me-nots, used soap dishes and mild menthol sprays. Miss Steryl Ezer hummed several selections during the ceremony and Mrs. S. S. Enema sang "O Promise Me".

Mrs. Ton Silitis, grandmother of the bride was an out of town guest. She wore a lavaliere of precious gall stones and a small iodoform turban. Other out-of-town guests were the Misses Chronic and Acute Appendicitis, Sir Osteo Myelitis accompanied by his daughter Polyo Myelitis. Baby Richets was also present.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Pulse trembled off on their honeymoon which was spent in the "Gentian Violet Room". On their return they will reside at Germy Apartments on Laboratory Avenue.

Our large group of nursing aides are "right hand men" for the nursing staff. They carry on many tasks that save the nurse valuable time.

Our nursing aides take a six-week course in simple nursing procedures before they work on the floors. Indeed, work without these ladies would be a great deal different.
